Additional Information:

Aspiring mogul skiers on the road for an adventure of a lifetime! Leaving Copper Mountain at 7:30 am July 8th. Athletes and coaches will hit the Lewis and Clark Trail in search of a campsite in La Grande, Oregon. Finishing their drive on the 9th campers settle into houses and get ready for a week of intensive training and excitement. Goal setting, video review, cross training are all part of the daily routine.

A total of 6 days on snow with a break on July 13th to visit the Oregon coast for some swimming, surfing, and beach-combing. A day of fun, in the sun or rain.

Daily dryland activities include; sports, hikes, swimming and rainforest exploration. Athletes are expected to lend a hand throughout each day. Be prepared to help cook, clean and generally help the team move efficiently on and off the hill. We pack up after a week and return to Copper around 4:00pm July 18th. This is a skiers "Lifecamp" and a Team Summit Freestyle "Rite of Passage!"

* Camp based on assumption Covid-19 restrictions will allow team travel.

** Campers require a negative test prior to loading van on July 8th

*** Could require family travel as a last resort. Refunds if needed
