New Zealand 2019 Park and Pipe Camp

We will be traveling from Denver to Queenstown, NZ. We will be lodging in a town called Wanaka. We are aiming for 14-15 days on snow. We will spend most of our time at Cardrona with possible days at Treble Cone and The Remarkables. Off-snow site seeing activities are limitless in New Zealand. Possible day trips to the Tasmanian Sea, Dunedin (old castles), hang out in Queenstown, and lots of different hikes.

Why New Zealand- The parks are good. Once we get to New Zealand the price of training and housing is very reasonable, making it easier to do longer camps. A big plus is the cultural experience.

How Much - $5500 for airfare, housing, passes, food, transportation (everything). $4000 if you purchase your own airfare.

$1000 deposit is due upon registration.

We must have 2 athletes registered for the camp to run. The price will remain as consistent as possible, depending on airfare. Flights are reasonable right now, please consider this opportunity. The flight to New Zealand is 12-14 hours, be prepared for lots of movies and napping in a small space. The Team Summit House in New Zealand is a beautiful property 20+ Acre property.
